31ST SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Antiphon

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

First Reading

Wis 11:22-12:2

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground. Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent. Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you? You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all. Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned. so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading

2 Thess 1:11-2:2

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor' and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

Communion Antiphon

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.

Notices, News & Events

NOVEMBER MASSES

A lady was once amused when Padre Pio said he was offering a Mass for his long-departed mother. She said, 'But Father your mother is surely already in heaven?' To which the saint replied: "Yes, but that is because God knew I would one day offer this Mass for her."

In all of the November Masses, we pray for the holy souls, those who have gone before us in faith. Special envelopes are available in the church if you wish to make an offering. Write the names of your deceased loved ones for whom you wish to pray, on this envelope.

"May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

November Masses for the Holy Souls can be arranged through the Catholic Charity, Aid to the Church in Need. The Mass stipends are sent directly to poor priests and the Mass is offered for your intentions. You can arrange Masses at www.aidtochurch.org or call 1800 101 201. A few slips for this are in the churches.
